

Daniel C. Kent

Member

(907) 263-7214

Anchorage

dkent@bhb.com

Practice Areas

- * Complex Litigation
- * Personal Injury
- * Product Liability
- * Business Torts and Commercial Litigation

Mr. Kent's practice focuses on civil litigation in trial and appellate courts, including representation of plaintiffs and defendants in personal injury, wrongful death and subrogation claims, as well as insurance coverage and commercial disputes. In addition, he advises on land use regulations and prosecutes code violations for various cities and boroughs throughout the state.

Education

- * Vermont Law School (J.D., 2001)
- * Utah State University, Logan (B.A., cum laude, 1998)
- * Institute Francais des Alpes, Annecy, France

Admitted to Practice

- * U.S. District Court for the District of Alaska
- * Alaska

Awards and Honors

- * National Deans List; Golden Key National Honor Society

Representative Matters and Selected Clients

- * Therchik v. Grant Aviation, Inc., 74 P.3d 191 (Alaska 2003), which required insurers in Alaska to strictly comply with Alaska's regulations when drafting policy endorsements restricting coverage of attorneys fees.
- * Phillip D. Casciola v. F.S. Air Service, Inc., 120 P.3d 1059 (Alaska 2005), which upheld a large punitive damage award in a breach of contract and fraud action to punish intentional torts motivated by financial gain.

Professional and Community Activities

- * National Institute of Trial Advocacy, Attended Modern Trial Advocacy Course, San Francisco (June 2004)
- * Member, Alaska Academy of Trial Lawyers
- * President, International Law Society, 1999-2000