

Jennifer L. Owens, Ph.D.

Associate

(907) 263-7229

Anchorage

jowens@bhb.com

Practice Areas

- * Natural Resources and Energy Law
- * Public Utility and Regulatory Law
- * Telecommunications and Technology Law

Ms. Owens' practice focuses on representation of pipelines and public utilities (including telecommunications) in regulatory proceedings, litigation and commercial transactions. She also advises clients on intellectual property issues, appellate matters and commercial litigation, and has particular expertise in the areas of natural resources, including oil, gas and mining. Ms. Owens joined the Anchorage office in 2006.

Education

- * University of Colorado School of Law (J.D., 2005)
- * University of Colorado (Ph.D., chemical engineering, 2002)
- * University of Colorado (M.S., 2000)
- * University of Mississippi (B.S., cum laude, 1997)

Admitted to Practice

- * United States District Court for the District of Alaska
- * Alaska

Awards and Honors

- * Casenote and comment editor, Journal of Telecommunications and High Technology Law, University of Colorado School of Law
- * National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship
- * University of Mississippi full athletic scholarship volleyball, GTE Academic All-American Team

Publications

- * Trolling for Trouble: Patent Trolls in Standard-Setting Organizations, forthcoming in 2010 in the text The Standards Edge: Unifier or Divider?
- * "Not Quite Dead Yet": The Near Fatal Wounding of the Experimental Use Exception and its Impact on Public Universities, 3 J. Telecom. & High Tech. L. 453 (2005).

* Photopolymerization and compressed antisolvent processing to form degradable crosslinked polymer microparticles for therapeutic drug delivery, Ph.D. dissertation, University of Colorado (2002).