

Charles (Chas) R. Eberle

Associate

(202) 862-8381

Washington, D.C.

ceberle@dc.bhb.com

Practice Areas

- * Telecommunications & Technology Law
- * Government and Agency Relations
- * Government Procurement and Small Business Development
- * Energy Law

Mr. Eberle practices primarily in the areas of telecommunications law. He represents clients before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), state utility commissions, and Federal courts. His practice involves a wide range of telecommunications issues including Universal Service, wireless services, broadband, public safety, regulation of equipment manufacturers, and open Internet policy. Mr. Eberle also advises clients that participate in U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) contracting programs and represents clients in federal procurement disputes before the SBA and Government Accountability Office. Prior to attending law school, he worked for the New Democrat Network in Washington, D.C.

Education

- * Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 2007)
- * University of Notre Dame (B.A., 2002)

Admitted to Practice

- * Maryland (2007)

Awards and Honors

- * Barrister's Council, Georgetown University Law Center
- * The Tax Lawyer, Georgetown University Law Center
- * Dean's List, University of Notre Dame

Professional and Community Activities

- * Federal Communications Bar Association (FCBA)
- * Horton's Kids, volunteer tutor